FOREST DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

The 7th July 1874.

Tenders are invited for the collection, by contract, of dry and dead sandal-wood trees and old sandal roots left in the ground, in any or all of the three Districts of Kadar, Chitaldroog and Shimoga (or in any of the taluks thereof,) in the Nagar Division.

2. All charges connected with the digging out and uprooting of trees, removal of white wood, and of carriage to the koti, to be borne by the successful contractor, who must make his own arrangements for all such work.

3. All trees must be uprooted. The contractor will not be required to cut the wood up into billets, but shall remove all bark, and white and sap-wood, leaving however a layer of white wood, quarter of an inch in thickness on the heartwood, all round.

4. No green or growing trees shall be felled.

5. Should the contractor fell any green or growing trees, he shall be liable to a fine of Rs. 20, (to be at once paid down) for every kandi or part of a kandi, (560 lbs) so felled and delivered, and further shall not receive any payment for such weight of green sandalwood. He shall also be liable to punishment under the Forest Rules should he fell or damage any green or growing sandalwood trees in the jungles.
